

I have been a listener of KLOVE for several years. I a day in which you have to be concerned about what you children hear on the radio KLOVE is a breath of fresh air. It is always encouraging and uplifting. I sincerly hope that LPFM will not take over our KLOVE stations. It is the only station my family will listen to. It is also an encouragement to our community.